County Assessor, CONO to Host Learning Sessions April Tour to Help Public Understand 2019 Reappraisal Process

El Paso County, CO, March 18, 2019 – El Paso County Assessor Steve Schleiker will host a series of “meet and greet” public forums during April to help the public better understand the impacts they will see during the upcoming 2019 property reappraisal.

Schleiker said, “With the record number of sales, and our county at the top of the nation for real estate activity, this reappraisal is going to be a challenging one to say the least. We want to make sure that our customers have complete understanding of the process. These meetings are designed to help the public feel more comfortable with their reappraisal experience. We have placed their concerns as our top priority.”
